

My name is Chenda. I have been attending Light Church for about six months. I came to church because my children attended Cambodian Care's school during the week, and they would also go to the church service on Sundays. My mother was praying for me, and I encountered Jesus and gave my life to Him. Jesus has changed my life in many ways. Before I came to Light Church, I was stealing money by hiding it from my husband and his family. I was greedy and did not know the value of generosity. I valued money more than I valued honesty in my marriage and with my family. Jesus has helped me to be honest in my relationships, and I have stopped hiding money from my husband and his family. I have also starting giving to Light Church in the weekly offerings. Proverbs 11:25 says, "A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed," and I have seen that come true in my life. I have been able to enroll all six of my children in Cambodian Care's school, and I am now taking a leadership role to help others in the church, too. I am very thankful to Pastor Koy and Reny for starting the school and church. I know that through God I can do all things, so I can overcome any obstacle in my life.

In the future, I want to pursue education for myself, so that I will have the knowledge to help lead others to Jesus, so they can live a life of honesty, too.
